

HAS SET STANDARD FOR ENTIRE WORLD

Col. Anderson, Replying to Mr. Bryce, Discusses America's Advance.

HERE MAN'S PATHWAY HAS LED UP HIGHER

There Are Evils, but None Greater Than England Has Had—Uplifting Influence of Education Upon Man. Plans for $1,000,000 Endowment.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] HARLOTTESVILLE, Va., June 16.—The General Alumni Association of the University of Virginia, met this morning, President DeCourcy W. Thom, of Baltimore, in the chair. Many reports were submitted and considered, among them being an interesting statement from President Alderman, who is now in Europe, on the subject of the $1,000,000 endowment which the association is engaged in raising, and important reports from the dean of the various departments of the university, covering four years of work and development. A far-reaching plan for an endowment for the association was discussed, and referred to a committee for a special report.

The officers for the ensuing two years were elected, as follows: Hon. William A. Jones, of Warsaw, Congressman from the First Virginia District, president; Hon. Charles Pinckney Jones, of Highland Springs, secretary; Mr. DeCourcy W. Thom, of Baltimore, second vice-president; Dr. James Morris Page, of the University, secretary; Mr. William Allen Perkins, of Charlottesville, treasurer.

Anderson Replies to Bryce. The annual address before the alumni was delivered in Madison Hall at noon by Colonel George Wayne Anderson, of Richmond, who graduated from the law school in '36. Colonel Anderson's subject, "The Uplifting Influence of Education Upon Man," was really a brief against certain views declared in an address by the Hon. James Bryce, delivered at the University on last Friday's day, April 15th, when the British Ambassador intimated that thoughtful men at least on the Continent were drawing back from popular government as it has been taught in this country for a century, and are beginning to doubt if the people are capable of political purity. Colonel Anderson traces the development of the race from the Paleolithic fathers down to the hearthstone, through the ages of bronze, iron, steel, steam and electricity, until he comes face to face with the modern world. He then engaged in his ready attempts at government, and asks the pertinent question whether we have merely maintained his level. He answers that through government man's pathway has led upward, government is the ladder of knowledge, and the Charter was not the beginning, but the re-assertion of ancient human rights and a denial of divine right to rule.

New Standard for World. Coming to America, said Colonel Anderson, this country has set a new standard for the world. There are crudities there are trusts, monopolies, tariffs that grind men's bones to pamper legal favorites, but England has had all these and history does not repeat itself. Who says corruption to us, in view of the notorious facts that caused the English act against corrupt practices in electioneering? Who dares sneer at crime in England with such a people still sparsely settled in so vast a land? Has English blood done better in Canada, Australia, South Africa, or, indeed, in England herself? There never has been a Jeffreys or an abased Lord Bacon in America, and there never can be.

Another suggested view of Mr. Bryce received attention. "It is surprising," said Colonel Anderson, "to hear the Ambassador say that a question of permanent interest for all students of politics arises out of Jefferson's high opinion of the value of knowledge and the efforts he made to spread university instruction, and to have that question stated thus: 'What will be the effect of education on the highly educated man, so far as politics is concerned?' Will far as politics is concerned, give him a knowledge and sympathy with the people, or will it rather cut him off from the masses, making him detached, perhaps supercilious, possibly even scornful and cynical."

The knowledge and the training, and the ideas and the efforts of Thomas Jefferson himself give a full reply. And if other answer is required I cite the lives of William Ewart Gladstone, and of the Right Honorable James Bryce himself, and all the host of English-speaking statesmen."

Alumni Luncheon. The alumni luncheon took place at 3 o'clock in the university commons. The first use made of the handsome new dining hall, President Thom was master of the occasion. The young alumni were welcomed in happy style by Mr. Archibald H. Taylor, of Baltimore, and Mr. Herbert Massey Peck, of Wisconsin, responded. The toast, "Our Veterans Professors," was responded to by Professor Charles Baskerville, of the College of the City of New York.

Beta Chapter's Installation. The exercises of the evening were given over to the installation of Beta Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. These occurred in Cabell Hall, the invocation being by the Rev. Dr. William W. Moore. The young alumni were welcomed in happy style by Mr. Archibald H. Taylor, of Baltimore, and Mr. Herbert Massey Peck, of Wisconsin, responded. The toast, "Our Veterans Professors," was responded to by Professor Charles Baskerville, of the College of the City of New York.

TEST COMMODITY CLAUSE

Legal Contest Under the Hepburn Act in Philadelphia. PHILADELPHIA, June 16.—A legal contest to determine the constitutionality of the commodity clause of the Hepburn act, passed by Congress, was begun in the United States Circuit Court here to-day, when arguments were made in the proceedings instituted by the government to restrain seven coal-carrying railroads from transporting anthracite coal from mines in Pennsylvania in which they are interested to points outside the State. The government was represented in the proceedings by Attorney-General Bonaparte and two special assistants—A. Allison Wilmer and T. C. Spelling. The interests of the railroads were looked after by a host of prominent lawyers headed by John J. Johnston of Philadelphia, and Robert W. De Forest, of New York. Judges Dallas, Gray and Buffington were on the bench.

Messrs. Wilmer and Spelling spoke for the government to-day, and were followed by Mr. De Forest, Mr. Johnston will finish for the railroads, and Attorney-General Bonaparte will make the closing argument for the government. Both of Mr. Bonaparte's assistants made a strong defense of the commodity clause. Mr. Spelling was emphatic in his statements that the government could regulate railroads, and he asserted that Congress had the power to stop every railroad car on its tracks. Mr. De Forest, for the railroads, took issue with the government and said that the attorney for the government tried to wave the red flag alongside that of the Stars and Stripes.

BANK CASHIER DISAPPEARS

Mr. Fawcett, of Buckingham, Leaves; Bogus Paper in Bank. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DILLWYN, Va., June 16.—A message was received here this morning from Buckingham, Courthouse, which stated that Mr. Fawcett, cashier of the Buckingham Bank, had disappeared from the village on Sunday and had not been heard from since. On investigation this morning by directors it was found that there was a charge of the bank, and that the cash on hand amounted to $5,600. It is reported that the depositors will not lose, but the stockholders will have to bear all the loss. Mr. Fawcett came here from the North about three years ago and took charge of the bank. Just a few days ago he purchased a beautiful home from Mr. P. A. Grigg, and it is understood that he paid cash for the property.

THE NURSE IS INDICTED

Gives Shriek and Falls to Floor When Nurse is Indicted. NEW YORK, June 16.—Sarah Koten, the nurse who shot and killed Dr. Martin W. Auspitz on June 7th, has been indicted by a grand jury in a charge of murder in the first degree. When arraigned in the Court of General Sessions to-day, she pleaded not guilty to a charge of murder, and was remanded back to the Tombs. Miss Koten created a most distressing scene during her arraignment before Judge Muhlenberg. She had appeared to be entirely rational, but when the clerk read the indictment charging her with the murder of Dr. Auspitz, she uttered a piercing shriek that could be heard on every foot of the sidewalk. Two court officers seized her, but she fell to the floor and seemed shaken with an epileptic fit. When she became quiet again, she was carried to the anteroom by four policemen.

Later in the day, the coroner's jury returned a verdict to the effect that Dr. Auspitz died of his wounds inflicted by Sarah Koten. In receiving the verdict Coroner Hamburger criticized the action of the District Attorney in permitting the case to go to the grand jury, and the coroner's jury had made its report.

BIG CABLE FELL

Slipped from Clutch and Plunged Into River. NEW YORK, June 16.—Just as workmen were about to fix it permanently in place to-day, one of the great steel cables of the new Manhattan Bridge, weighing several hundred tons, slipped from the clutch which held it, and plunged into the East River 130 feet below. In anticipation of just such an accident, all river traffic near the bridge had been suspended. One end of the falling cable struck and injured Hermann Witt and John Tamareanli. The only other damage done was to the clutch and a wagon which was caught under the land end of the cable as it fell. The clutch was set on fire by friction and was burned to bits. The wagon was cut in two as if by a saw. Another attempt to put the cable in place will be made to-morrow.

THEIR TRIBUTE TO NEW MARKET'S DEAD

March to Cemetery and Stand With Uncovered Heads—Place Flowers on Cadet Monument, and Captain Myers Makes Address—Well, but Footsore.

BY REV. JAMES POWER SMITH, D. D. Aide on the Staff of Stonewall Jackson. NEW MARKET, VA., June 16.—Never was there a more delightful morning than greeted the Howitzers to-day. Monday afternoon the enthusiasm of Harrisonburg was shown by an outpouring that was embarrassing. The rain came in a heavy downpour that lasted all afternoon. It was impossible to move. When the rain grew more reasonable the cooks made a great stew of a variety of good things, and it was eminently satisfactory. The boys marched to a hall, where they dried and warmed before a fire, and slept on the floor. At 10 o'clock the roll was called. If two or three were absent loitering in the restaurants, they had special work assigned them to remember it, but joy comes in the morning. Make Fine Time. What a charming day for a march over the splendid road! In the long stride they marched, delighted with the beauty of the country and happy as they could be. The party reached Lacy Springs before 12 o'clock after a march of nine miles in three hours. A halt was made where a great stream comes out of the hill and is large enough to turn a mill. The boys are down bathing their feet in the cool water of the stream. A great bucket of buttermilk fresh and rich, is greatly enjoyed while the cooks are busy preparing the steaks and coffee for the midday meal.

We have this morning on the pike left, away to our right, the battlefield of Cross Keys, at the foot of the Southern end of the Massanutten Mountain, and the field where Ashby fell, and beyond is Fort Republic, where Jackson was nearly captured. It was a fine piece of generalship when the general, with inferior force, prevented the junction of Frémont and Shields by striking them successfully and defeating both. Honor New Market Dead. The company reached New Market at 2 P. M. in good condition and in great spirits. All are well, with a few footsore men. The battery halted in New Market for a little while, receiving most kindly reception. Marching out to the cemetery, the young soldiers and their guests stood with uncovered heads. Mr. E. C. Henkel briefly told the story of the battle of New Market and the gallant behavior of the Virginia Military Institute cadets. Captain Myers responded, and for the Howitzers laid the beautiful flowers sent him by New Market ladies on the monument to the memory of the eight cadets and other veterans who were killed. The chaplain offered a brief prayer and the march was resumed.

PLEAD GUILTY OF BRIBERY

President and Superintendent of Paving Company Pay Fine. COLUMBIA, Md., June 16.—M. F. Bramley, of Cleveland, president of the Cleveland Trinidad Paving Company, to-day pleaded guilty to three of seven indictments against him, charging bribery of former members of the board of public service of the city with the East River Street paving contract, and was fined $500 on each, or a total of $1,500, including costs, which was promptly paid. H. C. Lang, superintendent of the paving company, also pleaded guilty to eight indictments charging bribery, and was fined $500 on each, or seven, Lang's fine amounting to $3,700, including costs, was paid.

GILCHRIST AND FLETCHER

Looks Like Nomination of These in Florida Primary. JACKSONVILLE, FLA., June 16.—The second Democratic primary was held in Florida to-day, and from the indications up to midnight, Albert W. Gilchrist, of Punta Gorda, is leading John C. Stockton, of Jacksonville. The city of Jacksonville has 6,000 and 7,000. In the race for United States Senator, Governor Broward and Duncan Fletcher are leading close. But at a late hour to-night Fletcher was steadily gaining in South Florida, and it is generally conceded that he will be nominated by a small majority. It is yet too early to make definite figures on the election for delegates to the Denver convention.

MANDAMUS IS REFUSED

Supreme Court Denies Petition of Blackstone to Compel Trial. WYTHEVILLE, VA., June 16.—The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia to-day refused the writ of mandamus asked for by Judge Blackstone in his effort to prevent Judge Clarence Robinson from filling the judgeship from which the petition was made. The court ruled that the petition did not set forth good grounds for granting same. There were no attorneys present in the case, the petition having been sent to the court. Only one case remains on the argument docket, which will be heard to-morrow morning.

Muzzle All Stray Dogs

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 16.—President Roosevelt to-day directed the district commissioner to take steps to muzzle all "stray" dogs in Washington for the next sixty days. The recommendation was made with a view to checking the epidemic of rabies now prevailing here, as indicated in a report from the Bureau of Animal Industry, Department of Agriculture, made public on Monday.

CUMMINGS MAY BE NAMED WITH TAFT

Boom of Iowa's Governor for Vice-President Feature of Day.

PLAN FOR HARMONY IN STATE'S AFFAIRS

An Understanding Between Governor's Friends and Those of Dolliver, by Which Neither Shall Be Shelved—Talk of Fairbanks, Who Still Says No.

CHICAGO, ILL., June 16.—The boom of Governor Cummins, of Iowa, for the vice-presidential nomination was the distinctive feature of the day in the contest for the second place on the ticket, and it received much favorable consideration. Senator Borah, of Idaho, who early to-day started the agitation on behalf of the Iowa Governor, spent much of the day sounding Western delegations in his behalf, and at the close of the day announced that he had found much encouragement. The mention of Governor Cummins' name was received with varying emotions by the members of the Iowa delegation, and it soon became evident that in the event the Governor's candidacy should be more energetically pressed his Iowa support would not be confined to the so-called Cummins faction. Several Allison-Dolliver adherents promptly announced that as a matter of State pride, if for no other reason, they would support the Governor's candidacy.

Adopt Basis of Harmony. A number of Iowa Republicans associated politically with Governor Cummins, after a conference to-night, stated that while they had not communicated with the Governor on the subject, it had been determined to assume the responsibility of presenting the claims of Iowa for second place, in the event that there developed a candidate in Washington to insist upon an Iowa man.

The conference agreed that as a basis of harmony it should be understood that if Senator Dolliver were nominated for Vice-President, Governor Cummins must succeed him in the Senate, and in turn Senator Dolliver be guaranteed the support of the Cummins element for return to the Senate following the retirement of Senator Allison; thus guaranteeing to Senator Dolliver, as was claimed, that by accepting the vice-presidency he would not effect the termination of his own official career.

INSTRUCTS FOR BRYAN

Speer Delegation Recognized, But He Low on Platform. GLENWOOD SPRINGS, COL., June 16.—Although the Denver delegation, headed by Mayor Robert W. Speer, was recognized by the State Democratic Convention as regular, the Mayor was defeated on the question of platform at the session of the convention this morning. The platform was presented by former Governor Alva Adams. It was, in part, as follows:

"Congress, whose recent adjournment has been its only meritorious act, too hostile to the President's recommendations to adopt them, and too cowardly to close its session without the pretense of legislation, has deliberately postponed all measures of permanent importance until after the next election, after enacting a so-called currency emergency law, the operation of which brings but small measure of relief, while giving value to a line of securities as the basis of currency issue. A party whose shibboleth of 'sound money' destroyed half the business money of the nation cannot defend its last assay monetary legislation upon any other basis than the gag rule of the Speaker and the demand of the great financial centres of the country."

Tribute to Bryan. The platform concludes: "Resolved, That in W. J. Bryan, the Democracy of Colorado recognizes a true patriot, a wise, fearless and conservative statesman, and a thoroughly honest leader. We, the people of this State, do hereby instruct the delegates elected by us to instruct the delegates elected by the people of the nation, to elect W. J.
